- 1.2. The Goods are supplied under the Buyer's Request. The Buyer's Request is submitted to the Company through the Service in the manner determined in the User Agreement.
- 1.3. After receipt the Buyer's Request and in the presence of the required quantity of the Goods, agrees with the Buyer on the terms of supply of the Goods (name, assortment, quantity, price, supply time and other possible conditions) and issues an Invoice to the Buyer for payment of the Goods indicating the essential conditions of a particular supply.
- 1.4. From the date the Company issues an Invoice to the Buyer on the basis of a specific application of the Buyer, such Buyer's Request is considered accepted by the Company for execution. At the same time, payment of the issued Invoice in any amount, either in full or in part, is the Buyer's Acceptance of the Company's offer to supply under the terms and conditions agreed in the Invoice

2. TERMS OF SUPPLY

- 2.1. The Goods are supplied on the terms of EXW (Incoterms-2020).
- 2.2. The Buyer independently organizes the process of supply of the Goods from the warehouse of the Goods Manufacturer.
- 2.3. By agreement of the Parties, supply can be arranged by the Supplier to the destination specified by the Buyer.
- 2.4. By written order of the Buyer, the recipient of the Goods may be a third party specified in the shipping documents.
- 2.5. Prices for Goods may be set in USD and EURO.
- 2.6. In cases where the Buyer does not accept the Goods from the Supplier without the grounds established by law, other legal acts or the Offer or refuses to accept it, the Supplier has the right to demand payment of the Goods in full from the Buyer as well as to demand to indemnify the Supplier against any expenses and loss in full. The Buyer is obliged to indemnify the Supplier against any expenses and loss during Five (5) business days from the date of the sending the Supplier's demand.

3. RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS OF PARTIES

3.1. The Company is obliged:

- to supply the Goods in batches or at a time in accordance with the terms of the Offer;
- provide accompanying documentation for the Product.

The Company is entitled:

- The Supplier has the right to demand from the Buyer to meet with all terms of this Offer.

3.2. The Buyer is obliged:

- to pay the Goods;
- to pick up the Goods from the Manufacturer's warehouse and/or from the destination agreed by the Parties during 24 hours from the date of issue of an invoice or execution of the Offer on the site m-flowers.com;
- to perform all Buyer's obligations under this Offer.

If the Buyer does not declare complaints (claims) to the Goods at the time of their acceptance, the Goods are considered accepted by the Buyer, including by name, assortment, completeness, quality, Presentation (consumer packaging), quantity and other mandatory attributes. In this case, the Buyer does not have the right to further refer to the non-compliance of the Goods with the terms of the Offer. The Parties agree the term of freshness for the Goods is not established.

4. SUPPLY TIME AND PAYMENT OF PAYMENT

- 4.1. The Goods are supplied to the Buyer on the terms specified in the invoices for each individual supply.
- 4.2. The price, quantity, assortment and terms of supply of the Goods are fixed in the invoice issued by the Supplier sent to the Buyer's e-mail address specified in the Client profile and/or through the interface of the Supplier's website: m-flowers.com. The payment of each specific invoice means the Buyer's indisputable agreement with the price, quantity, assortment and terms of supply of the Goods.

The Buyer pays for the Goods on the terms of 100% prepayment by transferring funds in a non-cash order to the Supplier's bank account. The Buyer's obligation to pay for the Goods is considered performed after 100% prepayments for the Goods are charged to the Supplier's settlement account.

The Parties have separately agreed that the amount of prepayment before the supply of the Goods is a pledge in the meaning defined by the requirements of the legislation of the Republic of Estonia, including to ensure proper fulfillment by the Buyer of obligations under the Offer (the terms of the Offer). In case of full and proper fulfillment by the Buyer of obligations under the Offer, the amount of the deposit is credited to the payment for the Goods. In any other cases, including in case of non-fulfillment and/or improper fulfillment by the Buyer of obligations under the Offer, as well as the Buyer's refusal of the Goods through no fault of the Supplier, the deposit remains with the Supplier in full.

- 4.3. The Supplier has the right to unilaterally and indisputably change the cost (prices) at its discretion, assign and apply discounts on Goods and /or other preferential terms of supply of Goods, including, but not limited to: due to the circumstances of the time of year, the condition of the Goods, the quantity of Goods, the long-term relationship with the Buyer, the ratio of supply and demand in the market of similar Goods, etc., which the Buyer is informed about by any means of communication and in any form, at the discretion of the Supplier. If the Buyer pays for the Goods and/or performs any other actions in accordance with the terms of the Agreement, the cost is considered agreed by the Parties and the Buyer is considered to have accepted such changes.

4.4. The Buyer and/or persons authorized by him are obliged to ensure proper acceptance of the Goods. The Buyer hereby guarantees that all individuals, legal entities and/or other persons receiving the Goods at the place of supply are authorized by the Buyer in accordance with the requirements of the legislation of the Republic of Estonia to perform all actions regarding the acceptance and inspection of the Goods, including the execution of documents on the transfer (acceptance) Goods. At the same time, the signatures of such persons in the documents on the transfer of Goods on behalf of the Buyer are recognized by the Buyer as the signatures of his authorized representatives, and the Buyer has no right to subsequently challenge the facts certified by the relevant persons and documents signed by them, and the Supplier proceeds from the reliability of the above circumstances.

The fact of receipt by the Buyer of the Goods is the signature of the Buyer and/or persons authorized by him in the consignment note (CMR) confirming the transfer of the Goods. If the Buyer fails to sign the CMR and/or to accept the supply during One (1) calendar day from the date of the readiness of the Goods and relevant CRM the supply shall be recognized as performed by the Supplier duly under this Offer.

4.5. In the event of a discrepancy in the price, quantity, assortment of Goods, the Buyer undertakes to send a complaint. In case of violation of the deadlines for filing a complaint, the supply is recognized as duly accepted by the Buyer and means full agreement with the price, quantity and assortment of the received Goods.

4.6. In cases where the Buyer does not accept the Goods from the Supplier without the grounds established by law, other legal acts or the Offer or refuses to accept it, the Supplier has the right to demand payment of the Goods in full.

4.7. If the Buyer has not accepted the Goods ordered by him at the agreed place within a day from the moment the Goods are ready for shipment, the Buyer is considered to have violated the Agreement and is responsible for the risk associated with a possible deterioration in the quality of the Goods due to its storage in full.
